

Editorial Coverage

Timely, Accurate and Relevant Information

Our editorial mission at Dentalcompare is to provide dental professionals with the information they need to make confident and educated purchasing decisions. We do this through providing timely, accurate, and relevant information covering everything from product launches, to industry updates, to tips and tricks. Our editorial team works closely with some of the most recognized key opinion leaders to position Dentalcompare as your front line for spreading product information.

Clinical Expertise

Content Editor, Jeff Rohde DDS, MS helps Dentalcompare focus on end-users—The Dentist. He makes sure Dentalcompare includes the features, information, and tools his fellow colleagues need.
